

Traditional Archers of Oregon

Winter Banquet and Business Meeting

February 1st, 2020

Linn County Fair and Expo Center

Convention Center Building

3700 Knox Butte Rd. Albany, OR 97322

Take exit 234A; just east of I-5

Schedule of events:

8:00 a.m.	Display and vendor set-up.
9:30 a.m.	Registration opens
10:30 - 11:30	Seminar: Riley Savage, Bob Bourland and Andy Ponce - Learn about an over-the-counter white-tail hunting opportunity that you can do in Northern Idaho.
11:30 - 1:30	Lunch/Board of Directors meeting
1:30 - 2:30	Seminar: - Jim Akenson will talk about alternate methods of bowhunting mule deer. Jim has avidly bowhunted mule deer for 50 years, but really didn't achieve consistent success until being "immersed" in it through living and working in the Idaho backcountry. Learning deer behavior is a major asset, as is looking at the hunting styles and approaches of Native American Indians.
2:45 - 3:45	TAO business meeting
4:00 - 5:00	Seminar: Bill McConnell (guest speaker) will talk about techniques for tracking. To learn more about Bill McConnell, see info below or check out his website at pastskills.org .
5:00 - 6:30	No Host Happy Hour
6:30	Guest speaker, Bill McConnell and dinner: Roast Sirloin of beef au jus with creamed horseradish; parmesan chicken with roasted red potatoes, mixed vegetables, tossed green salad and southern chocolate cake for dessert.

This year's guest speaker is Bill McConnell from Bozeman Montana. He is a primitive wilderness survivalist and lifelong outdoorsman who has been teaching primitive skills, professionally, since the mid- 1990's. In 2006, Bill founded the Past Skills wilderness school in Bozeman, Montana, where he teaches the finest primitive wilderness survival courses available anywhere in the world. Bill will talk about the history of archery and techniques for hunting with primitive weapons today. More information can be found at pastskills.org
